The June 21, 2010 7:00 p.m. budget public hearing was held at Town Hall, 1102 Unionville Church Road, Monroe, NC. Mayor Simpson and Commissioners Jim Baucom, Robert Crouch and Edd Little were present. Commissioners Randy Baucom and Ken Brown were absent. Town Attorney Ken Helms was also present.

Mayor Simpson called the public hearing to order and welcomed everyone.

No one signed up to speak at this public hearing.

Commissioner Edd Little made inquiry as to adjustments for attorney fees. Budget and Finance Officer Darrell Baucom stated that this would need to be altered due to the pending Griffin Farm and Landfill lawsuit. He also stated that the fees to Centralina Council of Governments would be coming down for the year from $45,000 to roughly $3,000 for backup service for the new Land Use Administrator. Mr. Baucom stated the he could move $33,000 from zoning to legal fees and make that budget figure $45,000. He could pull more from the fund balance appropriations or adjust it later on. A motion was made, however, Mayor Simpson reminded Council that this is a public hearing and no action will be taken.

There being no one else interested in speaking regarding the 2010-2011 budget, Mayor Simpson declared this public hearing adjourned.
